MEENA CRYLE & THE CHRIS FILLMORE BAND

Meena Cryle and Chris Fillmore, in addition to their passion for music, also connects a longstanding and sincere friendship. They are an extraordinary duet that understands itself musically blind.

Their songwriting recalls the Tedeschi Trucks Band or the legendary Allman Brothers. Southern rock, gospel, soul, blues, some country and ballads, in rare, atmospheric density. Sensitive, touching, gripping and goosebumping, like a road movie you wish it would never end.

At gigs and festivals in Europe and the US, they have already been on stage alongside legends such as Buddy Guy, Walter Trout, Taj Mahal, Canned Heat, Eric Burden and Cindy Lauper. In addition to a packed tour schedule, with legendary performances such as that at the Vienna State Opera, the band released three studio albums (Ruf Records) and a live record (CRS).

In October 2019, their new studio production * ELeVatlonS * was released. Already the previous albums were an announcement, but the current material opens a new Cryle / Fillmore universe. The versatility of the band always provides surprises. With a top-notch production and unmistakable musical signature, they definitely play in the top league.

On stage, this band is expressive, full of charm, enthralling and energetic - they take off, stay in memory and play with intensity every night, as if it were about their lives.
